GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

Dear Brother Knights,

I want to thank everyone for all of the support of our events in the month of January. It was a busy time with the beginning of the new year, First Friday/Saturday Adoration, a general council dinner meeting, recycle drive and an American Red Cross Blood Drive, and we sponsored a Hospitality Sunday. February is just around the corner, and appears to also be a month full of opportunities to be involved. February 1st we will have a First Friday/Saturday Adoration in the chapel, followed by a recycle event. On Wednesday, February 5 we will have a Council Dinner Meeting at 6 p.m. in Glynn Hall. February 18 we will have our Officers Meeting at 7 p.m. in room 1. Lent beginning on Ash Wednesday on February 26. Our 1st Lenten Fish Fry is scheduled for February 27. The six Friday Fish Fry events are our annual major fund raising activity. Please support us; consider volunteering in the kitchen or dining room. If you can help out give Mark Thornberg a call at 714 856-5775, or call Frank Smaldino at 714 227-0227.

Blessings To You All

DEPUTY GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

We are preparing for the Lenten season which always means that the Knights are Frying Fish!! The Knights are the largest supporter of the San Antonio de Padua parish but we couldn't do it without the dedication of our Brother Knights and all of the volunteers. For our newly inducted Brothers, this is a tremendous opportunity for you to get involved and show your support. We are looking for volunteers to help set up, cook, serve and clean for these events. The dates for the annual Fish Fry are Friday, February 28th, March 6th, 13th, 20th and 27th. Bring your family and friends and help make this year's Fish Fry a success.

This is the time of year where we bundle up and turn on our fireplaces. Let's remember to keep in our prayers our brothers and sisters who are less fortunate, homeless and in need of a hot meal and a warm place to stay. Take advantage of the many opportunities in our community to volunteer, donate and help.

Always take every opportunity to tell the people who matter to you that you love them. Life is fleeting and can change in the blink of an eye and we lose the opportunity to do that. Live with no regrets.

May God Bless you and your family.

- Italian Style -

So, what should we, your cook's team, make for you for an Italian style meeting dinner? Of course, as you should be aware by now, you're cooking staff comes from Italy which means red tomato gravy. A good Italian must start the evening with a lot of wine and great food. You know what that is don't you? You have had it before.

Tony DeLuca, Hans Kintsch, Richard Bianchino and of course their "bellissima" wives, Italians all. Just in case you forgot, we will start with a nice Italian salad with ingredients you can just dream about (No the kitchen sink is not in it but close). Next, we follow that with a big bowl of Penne macaroni covered with Italian gravy. (That's red tomato marinara sauce to you non-Italians) then we add meat balls and Italian sausage, finally garlic bread, garlic cheese bread that is "abbondanza". and to top it all off, we cannot forget the dessert. Of course, in addition to the Vino. If you prefer, we have an ample supply of Beer, water or sodas.

Please do not forget to make a sizable (LARGE) donation for dinner

Thanks so much for your prayers for us. I have arrived to Vietnam safely yesterday morning. My parents came to the airport to pick me up. We went to visit Fr. Pat together. At that time, there were two Carmelite Sisters visiting him.

He had the dialysis in the morning for 3 hours. I talked to the doctor as well as those who are taking care of Father. The doctor told me that father is currently undergoing dialysis twice a week and he will do it again on Wednesday. If nothing bad happen like yesterday, he would able to leave the hospital soon. Then, he can just come to have dialysis twice a week again. He wants to get out of the hospital and come back to the U.S as soon as we can. He wants to do the dialysis in the U.S.

Thanks be to God that his heath yesterday was much better than the days before. We talked to each other and try to help Phuc, his recent helper, to get a visa, so that we can get a flight to CA together.

You know that, It's a bit difficulty for Phuc to get a visa because of his age and for some other reasons. We made some different plans that if Phuc get a visa within 2 more weeks, we will fly to the U.S. together, and if more than two weeks, I'll take Father with me to the U.S. first and then Phuc can come later when he has a visa.

Phuc just applied for a visa last night and he needs some more evidences to facilitate his application. I'm trying to help him to get the evidence needed. We hope that he can get a visa and fly with us to the States.

For today, Father Pat feels much better than yesterday, even though he couldn't sleep during the night. Actually, he couldn't sleep during all nights. However, he sleeps in the day. He told me that, it seems like he has a jet lag.

Please continue keeping Fr. Pat in your prayers, so that he can recover soon and come back to see all of you :)

I'll give you his update.

Love and prayers,

Hoài

Thanks so much for your prayers for us. Fr. Patrick got out of the hospital yesterday afternoon, Vietnam time. On Friday, I will bring him back to the hospital to undergo dialysis treatment again. He is recovering much better. Today I'm going to go to the airlines agency to buy tickets for me to fly back with him. Hopefully we can fly back this Sunday. I have already arranged with Fr. Patrick's doctor that when we arrive to LAX, we will bring him directly to Saint Joseph hospital, so that doctors will continue with his treatment.

If something happens I will let you know.

Please continue keeping him in your prayers.

Father Joe will be having surgery on his jaw on Feb 3 at 1:40pm. This is to place holes in my jaw to insert posts for implants for the 3 teeth cut out because of the cancer they found on June 25. They will be drilling three holes and placing inserts to receive three posts. It then requires 3 months of healing and bonding. But, at least, that first week after the surgery I will need down time and unfortunately, soft food.

I would like to thank Rick and Carolyn Giddens for assisting Don and Dee St. Claire by picking up Don from the Rehab Center in Buena Park, taking him to Kaiser Hospital in Anaheim and waiting until all his tests are completed (roughly around 2 -3 hrs.) then taking him back to Buena Park Rehab Center. Your support and kindness are greatly appreciated.

Prayer Request;

Father Joe, Father Pat, Dennis McCoy, Gwen Davis, Suzy, Marie Abajian, Jim Hazard, Phyllis Fiorentino, Rick Giddens, Gloria Janicki, Maurice/Laverne McCaughin, Joe Nanci, Norma Hayek, Ray and Ramses Ghattas, Scott Farrow, Joyce Garza, Morris Kasiss, Laurette Ghoulam, Nina Angelina Provenza, and her one month old daughter Mia Josephine Provenza, Don St. Clair. Sue Kirrer husband and all of the Caregivers.

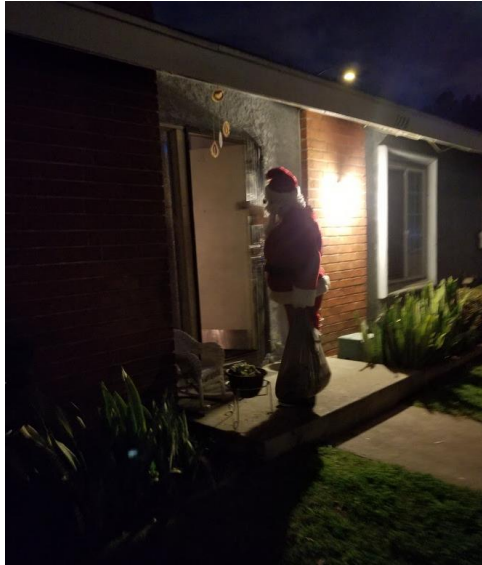

May God bless you all and your families and have a Blessed & Happy Thanksgiving Holiday.

Knights of Columbus INSURANCE

YOUR SHIELD FOR LIFE
By Kevin Garza

Hi My Brothers and Lady Knights

Happy Valentines day!

Love is in the air! During the month of February and especially around Valentine's Day, we spend a lot of time thinking about our loved ones.

We do much more than think about loved ones; we give flowers and chocolates and send greeting cards. Why all the fuss? To show our love, of course! But have you ever considered that you should Insure Your Love?

That's really what insurance is all about. People buy insurance because they love someone. I bought life insurance because I love my wife and children. I don't want them to experience a lack of money if I'm not here to provide for them. I want to make sure they can stay in the same home we love; I want to make sure that my children will have the college education they will need; I want to ensure that my daughter will have the wedding she's always dreamed of; I want my family to continue to live the lifestyle I've been so fortunate to be able to provide. My policy even has living benefits that I can enjoy!

In addition to life insurance the Knights of Columbus offers Disability Income Insurance, Long Term Care Insurance and Retirement Annuities. All of these help Insure Your Love. If I can't work because of illness or injury, my disability income insurance will provide for the necessities until I can work again; my long term care insurance will help me stay in my home or go to a nursing home and get the care I need without being a financial burden to my family; my retirement annuities will help my wife and me enjoy our golden years. All these products have helped me insure my love.

Let me suggest to you to buy that box of chocolates, get a beautiful arrangement of flowers or a dozen roses and include a card; but then sit down with me and with your wife and let me show you how you can Insure Your Love.

Vivat Jesus!
Best Regards,
KEVIN J.GARZA

Fingerprinting of Knights

Bishop Timothy E. Freyer recognizes the extensive amount of time the Knights of Columbus spend serving in our parishes where at times we interact with the youth of our Parish communities. As a result of our interaction the Diocesan department of Child and Youth Protection has included adding the Knights of Columbus to the list of ministries who will now be required to be background screened via LiveScan digital fingerprinting as well as complete a Safe Environment training course every three years. Our Diocese continues to ensure that all children and vulnerable adults are safe when they come to our parishes, schools and centers.

Members of the Knights of Columbus who are active in events which involve being around minors need to be LiveScan digital fingerprinted and complete safe environment training by January 2020.

At San Antonio De Padua please stop by the Religious Education Office to see Patty Sarnecki. She will assist in providing you with the necessary forms. Patty can also provide you with the business addresses of the local vendors who provide inexpensive LiveScan digital fingerprinting. The cost can be as low as twenty-five dollars. You are being asked to bear this cost.

Please wish a Very Happy Birthday to each of the following members who may be adding another candle to their cake but stay young at heart and certainly do not age in our eyes!

5 SMALL PRO-LIFE STEPS WE CAN TAKE

From an article by Ashlyn Portero

As I think about what this looks like in a practical sense, and how the application of a gospel-based pro-life ethic will look different for every person, I'm brought to the realization that this all comes together within the context of the local church. Sometimes churches, and especially church leaders, may feel as if pro-life ministry is yet another work they ought to be doing, while at the same time feel they are failing miserably. However, the more I consider how our own church can do a better job of fostering a pro-life culture, the more I'm convinced that the steps are small and doable for almost any pastor, leader, or member to begin today. Here are a few that come to mind:

1. Look for and support the pro-life efforts already happening in your church

There is a good chance that church members in your congregation are already engaged passionately in fighting for life. Begin having conversations with your members, asking around for anyone who is involved in ministries like foster care, pregnancy center support, or serving those with special needs. If your church actively preaches the gospel and teaches a Christian worldview, it is very likely that Disciples of Christ are already at work. As church leaders, we have the opportunity to encourage and empower them (Eph. 4:12).

It can be difficult to gain traction quickly when launching a new ministry or focus in your church, especially when you and your fellow staff or volunteers are busy with the administrative duties of running a church. Rely on your church members already carrying the baton to let you know where the pro-life work is happening and how the church can better resource its members to engage even more deeply in those efforts.

2. Teach a whole-life, pro-life view to your church members

It is impossible to teach the Word of God accurately and miss God's desire for human flourishing. Genesis to Revelation reveal that he is the author of our lives, faith, and salvation; so, we must obey his commands. From the senior pastor down to the small group Bible study leader, the local church needs to teach a pro-life ethic that is consistent with and rooted in Scripture.

As church leaders, we have a responsibility to help people see their own role in caring about human dignity and the protection of life, especially in its most vulnerable forms. It's not "too political" to advocate for issues of life from the pulpit when your authority is the Word of God (2 Tim. 3:16-17) and your church is filled with grace and love for people who have not always valued life.

3. Commit to educating yourself and your people toward a fuller pro-life ethic

In the same way that we grow in the understanding and knowledge of God when we read and learn his Word, we have an opportunity to grow in understanding on many issues surrounding the protection and flourishing of life. As leaders or members in the church, we need to be learners, not to be inflated by knowledge but to live and work for the good of those around us who might see our good deeds and give glory to God (Matt. 5:16).

Attend a conference like Evangelicals For Life, and learn from professionals working to advance life across the board: in special needs ministry and advocacy, in immigration reform, in human trafficking rescue, and in anti-abortion legislation. We cannot be experts in everything, or even several things. Inviting church members, perhaps even paying their way when resources allow, to join you in educating yourself on issues of life sends a strong message that you care about human dignity and how to better incorporate a pro-life ethic into your church and city.

4. Evaluate the priorities of your church

As a church leader, you carry the important and difficult responsibility of deciding which environments and programs your church will offer to foster discipleship. Strategic decision-making is important in churches that want to see growth in Christ. As such, it is important to ask if your church shares opportunities for members to engage in pro-life work, whether formally through set ministries or informally by sharing stories of church members engaged in parachurch ministry.

This is not to say that if your church doesn't have a full-blown orphan care ministry complete with its own budget and staff that your church isn't fulfilling the commands of Scripture. For example, our church supports ministries like our local pregnancy center through financial giving, participating in local advocacy efforts, and by encouraging church members to volunteer. We know that their staff is doing work that our church is not equipped to do on its own.

However, if we find that we are caring for our members without equipping them to live on mission, then we need to re-evaluate. What's more, if we find that our ministries are catering to the comfort and satisfaction of our church members and not to reaching out to a lost culture around us, then it's time to repent.

5. Celebrate the diversity of opportunities for pro-life ministry

We need every member of the body of Christ to fulfill the Great Commission and help build the church (1 Cor. 12). We also need every follower of Christ to envision a world that values the sanctity and dignity of human life, and to work toward that end. Attending Evangelicals for Life the past four years has helped me see the wonderful and abundant opportunities to engage in pro-life work.

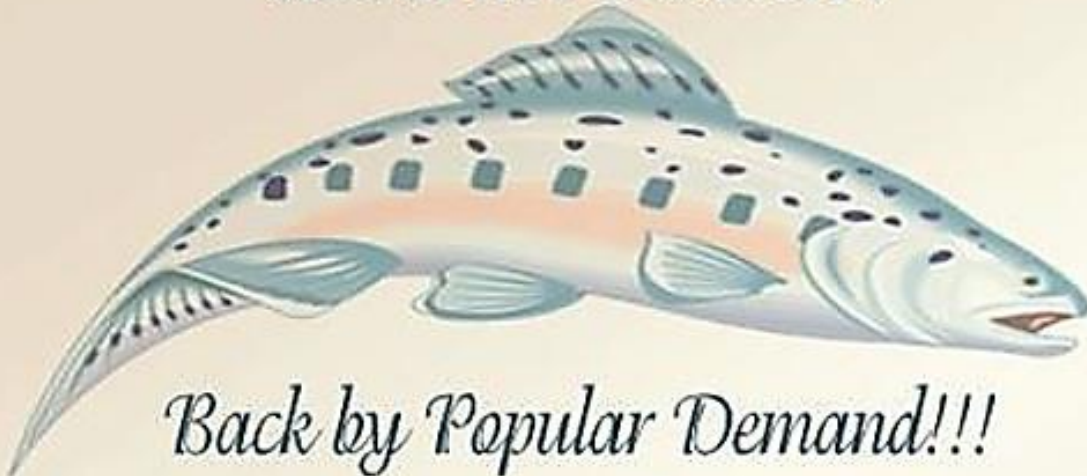

Right now in our church, I know of members pursuing adoption, fostering children, counseling survivors of sex trafficking, volunteering at our local pregnancy center, caring for refugees, and preparing to move overseas to share the gospel in foreign places. If you see a lack of energy in your church toward pro-life causes, it's time to practice what you preach.

Starting a ministry isn't the only way to support pro-life work—host a foster care education class, take a small group to your local pregnancy center to volunteer, or give to a supply drive for single moms choosing life. These needs exist in our communities, and unless we make the theoretical practical for our church members, a pro-life worldview won't connect as deeply as when the stories and testimonies are coming from our own church members.

The March for Life is held in January to coincide with the Supreme Court Case of Roe v. Wade, the outcome of which legalized abortion in the United States. For 45 years, the conviction that every human being deserves life has made its way through the heart of our nation's capital.

For the past 35 years I have had the privilege of serving the local community. We make most of the items we sell and do jewelry repair on the premises. In addition, we buy and sell all kinds of gold and silver coins. Our store features great selections, very reasonable prices and we always give special consideration to fellow parishioners.
